INTERVIEW SUMMARY

Dear Sir:

This is Applicant's summary of a telephone interview on 22 June 2010 for the captioned application.

Present:

For the PTO

Examiner Chantel GRAHAM

Examiner Michael MARCHESCHI

For Applicant

Attorney Samuel LAFERTY

Specialist: William ELLYATT

Inventor: David HOBSON

Applicant called Examiners Graham and Marcheschi on 22 June 2010 for clarification as to a) why the Examiners felt their current position with respect to the prior art were valid rejections, and b) why Applicant's arguments presented to date were not convincing to the Examiners to overcome the rejections. Inventor David Hobson explained his interpretation of his invention as contrasted to the prior art (especially the Forsberg patent), which Applicant sees as a gelled product rather than a low viscosity dispersion. All of the claims were discussed and the prior art (as applied by the Examiner) was discussed.

This is the sum and substance of the interview. No exhibits were supplied or discussed. No agreement with respect to the claims was reached.

Applicant has reviewed the Examiner's written summary of the Interview and does not contest any of the statements made therein.

Should any additional fees be required to process this Amendment, Applicant hereby authorizes payment of said fees from The Lubrizol Corporation Deposit Account No. 12-2275.

Respectfully submitted,

/ Samuel B. Laferty /
